Advanced Praise for Hadrian's Wall Path: Walking into History

Hadrian's Wall Path: Walking into History is a finalist for the prestigious 2015 President's Award from the Florida Authors & Publisher's Association.

"Hadrian's Wall Path: Walking into History is a riveting, well-written chronicle of a hiking adventure across the English countryside. More importantly, it is what Jane Blanchard herself learns, that "History becomes interesting, and it is coming alive." Fortunately, she does this for the reader as well. I found the details to be illuminating and thought-provoking, yet simple and to the point. Some highlights of the adventure: Once Brewed, Twice Brewed; Nine Nicks of Thirlwall, King Arthur, "Bogle", mizzle and all. Highly recommended!" ~ Maryann Burchell, South Bay Publishing

"The book is an excellent background for anyone interested in Hadrian's Wall, and a valuable resource for anyone contemplating the same path." ~ Alan W. Roddy, President of the Appalachian Trail Club of Florida (ATFC)

"This book was so much fun! I didn't even know about Hadrian's Wall Path before reading this book. But now that I have been introduced to it, I have learned that it is a scenic stroll through the ages that can be accomplished within the constraints of a working person's vacation time allowance. Also, unlike most guidebooks, there are moments of introspection and humor, as well as a hefty helping of back-story about the various events and structures along the way. It immerses the reader in the sights, sounds and smells along the path, just in case you are an arm-chair traveler like myself. Finally, this book is very well organized and it is evident that it was also well researched upon the author's return. Whether you plan to walk the wall physically or in your mind, this book is an enjoyable and educational read." ~ Elizabeth Chandler
