

Cheat Sheet for Hadrian's Wall Path: Walking into History

5 tips for walking Hadrian's Wall Path

After completing the 84-mile hike, Jane V Blanchard offers these tips for those planning to walk Hadrian's Wall Path.

Tip 1. Walk Hadrian's Wall Path from west to east.

Hike Hadrian's Wall Path, from west to east to keep the prevailing winds behind you.

Tip 2. Don't be in a rush

To fully experience the historic aspect of this World Heritage Site, plan extra time to read the information panels, visit museums and forts, and explore the ruins.

Tip 3. Use the Hadrian's Wall Bus.

Plan a base, either a hostel, campsite, or B & B, and then use the Hadrian's Wall Bus to move forwards and backwards along The Path.

Tip 4. Use the Visitor Centers

Use the Visitor Centers to find out about local lore and customs, the best places for dining, local events and entertainment, reserve a room, or purchase maps and souvenirs.

Tip 5. Reserve accommodations.

To ensure you have a place to stay during peak tourist times, make reservations at hostels, hotels, and campgrounds.

"Walk Hadrian's Wall Path, enjoy the history, the beauty of the northern English countryside, and sample the local brew in the pubs and inns along the way." Jane V. Blanchard, author of Hadrian's Wall Path: Walking into History, $4.95 Amazon.com
